Start Date: 6/11/2018 8:00 AM

End Date: 6/11/2018 12:00 PM

Make Things Happen - Crossing The Line to Being Productive

This course emphasizes self-management and productivity rather than traditional time management. The course offers participants the chance to examine their current state work and personal habits to identify areas to improve their productivity. Productivity is truly different than efficiency. A person can be efficient in going through their emails, however how productive were they after processing non-value emails? Participants will learn the difference and become aware of their time wasters as well as learn a David Allen's 5 step process for Getting Things Done. In addition, participants will learn practical strategies for using Technology effectively.

What You Will Learn:

- · How to Create a Productive Environment
- · Being Aware of your Time
- · Awareness of your Time Wasters
- · Planning & Prioritizing Your Time
- · The Basic Principles of Getting Things Done approach to personal productivity
- · Managing Dreaded Emails
- · Practical Strategies for using Technology effectively
